

DESIGN AND TECHNOLOGY CLASSROOM, KENT

This school wanted to create a fantastic space for the teaching of design and technology to primary school children.

Utilising an existing piece of waste ground in a difficult corner of the school, this building makes great use of that space and provides much needed additional space.

Ref: ED06

